Liberty and Vintage style

Spring Summer Collection

Let's go everybody! Welcome to our brand new SS15 collection, full of joy and colour. Our inspiration comes from the summers in early 50's, let's think back to Arkansas, nice old farms on the country fields, Carl Perrins is playing on the radio and we can hear children playing on the farm.

Are you with us? This is our particular adventure, a collection full of red, blue and yellow, bright colours matching with denim for skirts and jackets, a classic country vintage style for the little ones, running around with their wooden clogs on.

But that's not all, for the romantic ones, we propose the Angelica Look, perfect outfit in purple, pale pinks for short dresses and blouses in Liberty, classic and nostalgic but with a pinch of rock 'n' roll as well to shake your body, c'mon everybody!

Who is behind the whole thing?

Mom of two girls, curious, enthusiast and obstinate, I began creating dresses a few years ago. Initially it was just a small personal hobby, but slowly the idea (a little crazy) to create a brand was growing inside.

With help (and lots of patience) from my other half, the art of the best dressmaker in the world and the occasional and necessary bumps in the road I created with all my love these girls clothing brand inspired from my little ones, lovingly called Milou and Pilou.

Charming dresses with the nostalgic look good that we all love, with the quality and warmth of pure fabrics, with pure and cosy shapes, looking for super comfortable outfits for the little ones.

Because girls are just girls once, and because we should never resign of quality and craftsmanship for little nice things.
